

The use of public airwaves requires responsibility. The FCC must monitor the actions of broadcasters for the public. Democracy is only served with balanced reporting. The consolidation of media outlets prevents the public from receiving fair and just reporting. Sinclair Broadcasting should lose the right to use the public airwaves with their decision to force individual stations to air only selected programs. Please uphold your responsibility as the regulatory agency and refuse certification of this unethically large corporation. Thank you. Joyce Weir